DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

> The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Claims 1-3 recite the limitation "the uppermost coating layer". There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

> A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –
> (a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.
> (e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

4. Claims 1-5, 7, 9, and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Zama (US 2004/0034147 A1.) Zama teaches a coated paper useful as a transfer paper comprising a base paper substrate and a coating layer provided on one or both sides, wherein the coating comprises 0.1 to 100 parts by weight of organic hollow pigment (X) having a preferred percentage of hollowness of 50-99% and a particle size of 300-3000nm, and 0 to 99.9% by weight of a pigment (Z) and/or binder (Y) based on 100% by weight of the total amount of (X),

(Y) and (Z); wherein the content of the hollow polymer pigment with respect to the pigment (Z) falls within the claimed range in both embodiments (Abstract; Page 2; Paragraphs 0120, 0153, and 0168-0177.) Zama teaches that the coating weight of the coating on the base paper is 0.3 to 30 g/m^2 after drying (Paragraph 0034) and further teach examples that have a gloss as instantly claimed (Examples; Paragraph 0177.)

5. Claims 1, 3, 7, 8, 11, 12, 12, and 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being anticipated by JP 2002-62679 A (JP'679.) JP'679 teaches an electrophotographic transfer sheet comprising a base paper and a coating layer wherein the coating layer comprises a pigment mixture with hollow pigment having a hollowness of 50-55%, a mean particle size of 1 micrometer, and a weight content within the claimed range; and a paper basis weight within the claimed range (Claims, Paragraphs 0034, 0053, 0054.)

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

> (a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. Claims 6, 8, 10, and 12-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Zama. The teachings of Zama are discussed above. Though Zama teaches a coating weight of 0.3 to 30 g/m^2 and utilizes a fine paper base having a basis weight of 72 g/m^2, Zama does not specifically teach the basis weight of the coated paper as instantly claimed. However, one having ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention would have been motivated to determine the optimum basis weight for a particular end use of the coated paper wherein a paper substrate having a basis weight as instantly claimed is conventional in the art and would have been obvious as a base substrate for the coating taught by Zama.
